Greetings,

My name is Nilhari Bastola, widely known as "Nilam," and I am the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Asian Heritage Group.

With over three decades of professional experience in the travel and trekking industry since 1995, I founded Asian Heritage Treks and Travel in 2004 after recognizing the need for a company dedicated to delivering authentic cultural and nature-based experiences for international travelers visiting Nepal. Having grown up in the foothills of Mount Everest and gained extensive guiding experience both in Nepal and abroad, I developed a deep passion and responsibility to share the natural beauty, rich history, and adventure of the Himalayan region with the world.

At Asian Heritage Group, our mission is to create meaningful, enriching, and memorable journeys for travelers exploring Nepal, Bhutan, Tibet (China) and India. We offer a diverse range of travel experiences, including trekking adventures, cultural tours, outdoor activities, family-friendly holidays, wildlife encounters, mountaineering expeditions, and luxury travel programs, all designed with a flexible and tailor-made approach to meet individual interests and expectations.

Our experienced Himalayan guides take great pride in leading guests to hidden trails, remote villages, ancient temples, and breathtaking mountain landscapes set within pristine natural environments. With strong local expertise, a commitment to safety, and genuine hospitality, we ensure that every journey is professionally managed and deeply rewarding.

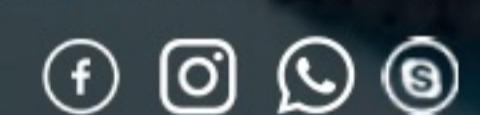

We look forward to welcoming you to the Himalayas and sharing unforgettable experiences together.

Warm regards,
Nilhari Bastola (Nilam)

Untouched Eastern Frontier

Makalu Region is one of Nepal's most rugged and least developed trekking destinations. Located east of Everest, it features deep river valleys, high mountain passes, and untouched forests within Makalu Barun National Park.

The biodiversity is exceptional, and the trekking routes are demanding yet incredibly rewarding. This region is ideal for experienced trekkers seeking isolation and dramatic Himalayan terrain.

VIEW PACKAGES

Kangchenjunga - Makalu Region of Nepal

The Kangchenjunga Region is a remote and pristine Himalayan landscape straddling the border of eastern Nepal and Sikkim, India. It is dominated by Mount Kangchenjunga (8,586 m), the third-highest mountain in the world and the second-highest in Nepal.

Everest Region of Nepal

Home to Mt. Everest (8,848.86m), the Everest Region—also known as Khumbu—is Nepal's most iconic trekking destination. This region blends towering Himalayan giants, vibrant Sherpa culture, ancient monasteries like Tengboche, and legendary trails leading to Everest Base Camp.

The Impossible Journey

The landscapes range from lush forests to glacial moraines and dramatic icefalls.

Despite being popular, the region maintains a powerful, awe-inspiring presence, offering both cultural richness and some of the most spectacular mountain views on Earth.

Gaurishankar Region of Nepal

Situated between Everest and Langtang, the Gaurishankar Region is a less commercial yet spiritually significant trekking area.

The Sacred Himalayan Sanctuary

Centered around Mt. Gaurishankar (7,134m), a sacred peak symbolizing Shiva and Parvati, the region features the wild Rolwaling Valley and the stunning glacial lake Tsho Rolpa.

The terrain is rugged and adventurous, offering solitude and dramatic Himalayan scenery. Rich in Sherpa and Tamang heritage, it provides a peaceful alternative to busier trails while maintaining raw mountain beauty.

Langtang Region of Nepal

Close to Kathmandu yet remarkably alpine in character, the Langtang Region offers a perfect blend of accessibility and high Himalayan scenery.

The Valley of Glaciers

Known for Langtang Valley, Kyanjin Gompa, and panoramic glacier views, this region showcases Tamang culture influenced by Tibetan traditions.

Snow-capped peaks, yak pastures, and alpine landscapes define the experience. It is ideal for trekkers seeking stunning mountain views without the extreme remoteness of eastern or far-western Nepal.

Langtang Trips

Manaslu Region of Nepal

The Manaslu Region is centered around Mt. Manaslu (8,163m), the world's eighth-highest peak. Known for the Manaslu Circuit Trek, the area offers a quieter alternative to Annapurna with equally dramatic scenery.

The Remote Himalayan Giant

Trekkers pass through subtropical forests, traditional Gurung villages, and high-altitude Tibetan settlements before crossing the challenging Larkya La Pass.

The region delivers a true sense of expedition-style trekking with fewer crowds and strong cultural immersion.

Manaslu Trips

● Manaslu Circuit Trek

Mustang-Dolpo Region of Nepal

The Mustang-Dolpo also known as mini Tibet Region lies in Nepal's trans-Himalayan rain shadow area, offering stark desert-like landscapes, ancient monasteries, and preserved Tibetan culture.

The Hidden Valley

Upper Mustang was once a restricted kingdom with walled cities like Lo Manthang, while Dolpo remains one of Nepal's most isolated trekking regions.

The terrain features dramatic cliffs, deep canyons, turquoise lakes like Shey Phoksundo, and centuries-old Bon and Buddhist traditions. It is culturally rich, mystical, and visually unique compared to the greener central Himalayas.

API - Saipal Region of Nepal

Located in Nepal's far west, the Api Saipal Region is one of the country's least explored trekking areas. Dominated by Mt. Api (7,132m) and Mt. Saipal (7,031m).

The Far Western Frontier

The region offers untouched alpine scenery, traditional villages, and deep cultural authenticity. The trails are remote and rarely traveled, providing a true off-the-beaten-path Himalayan experience.

For trekkers seeking wilderness and originality far from mainstream tourism, Api Saipal delivers pure adventure.

Jungle Safari in Nepal

Beyond the Himalayas, Nepal offers extraordinary wildlife experiences in its subtropical lowlands. Jungle safaris in national parks like Chitwan and Bardia take you deep into dense forests and grasslands where one-horned rhinoceroses, Royal Bengal tigers, wild elephants, crocodiles, and hundreds of bird species thrive.

The Real Wildlife Heaven

Guided jeep safaris, canoe rides along quiet rivers, and nature walks with expert naturalists create a rich and immersive encounter with Nepal's biodiversity.

The jungle experience offers a completely different side of the country warm, vibrant, and alive with wildlife.
